

RISK ENGINEERING OVERVIEW

HELP PREVENT AND MANAGE CLAIMS WITH A TAILORED RISK MANAGEMENT PROGRAM.

At The Hartford, we recognize that every customer has unique operations. It's why we work closely with businesses like yours. Whatever your risks, whatever your concerns, count on us for an effective, realistic, attainable safety and risk management program.

100+ years

That's how long The Hartford has been providing innovative and effective risk management programs. We've teamed up with numerous companies to successfully reduce their losses and help improve their operations through:

- Individual consultation
- Educational seminars
- Discounts on safety training programs

We can help you evaluate your exposures to loss and advise you on how to improve conditions. So you can run a safer, more profitable business.

A CONSULTATIVE APPROACH THAT HELPS PREVENT AND MANAGE CLAIMS

Accident prevention begins with self-assessment. We'll help you take an in-depth look at your equipment, material and people to see where potential accidents might occur. And help you put preventive measures in place. Should accidents occur, The Hartford will help you manage them so that they're less severe and less costly.
